VARSITY.

ST. JOE 6-Y. M. I. 1

May 5.—The Varsity was certainly keyed up to the proper point for a victory in this game. Lill was never in better form. Beckman suffered a severe cut in his hand in the second inning, but with Spartan courage he held out, without a murmur. The only time that the gods were favorable to the visitors was in the second inning when Marcus made a home run, the only score that the opposing nine received. Cool headed and with precision, Lill put the ball across the plate, making a record of nineteen strikeouts, while he was well supported, but two errors being made. This game shows that St. Joe lacks none of the old time fire and that our Reps are able to equal and even excel the standards set in former years.

ST. JOE 13—LAFAYETTE 2

May 12. — Though conditions were most unfavorable, a drizzling rain, strong wind, and wet diamond being the obstacles, the Varsity opposed the Lafayette team for a five inning game on the South Side diamond and set them down with a signal defeat. Lill was in his usual good form, not allowing a hit, while the support accorded him was all that could be expected. The visitors were a poor match for such a team as St. Joe has; the first inning convinced them of that fact when nine of our men reached the home plate before the umpire said for the third time "You're out."

SENIOR LEAGUE.

LAURELS 2—ROYALS 1

May 4.—Although outhit two to one the Laurels by their snappy fielding pulled a sure defeat out of the fire and retained their unbroken string of victories. The Royals failed to make good their chances of scoring by running the bases wild.

CARDINALS 2—IMPERIALS 1

May 6.—In a five inning game the Cardinals defeated the Imperials. Few hits were gathered on either side, none of which helped in the scoring. Birkmeir and Eisenhard opposed each other on the mound, the former having a little the better of his opponent.

CARDINALS 5-ROYALS 3

May 8.—Had the rain fallen a few minutes later the score might have looked different. The Royals succeeded in tieing the score in the first half of the seventh but the rain fell so hard the game had to be called by Umpire Novak, who has been doing splendid work as an arbiter.

JUNIOR LEAGUE.

RED SOX 7—TIGERS 6

April 30. — The Red Sox defeated the Tigers today. Score 7 to 6. Both sides started off well getting three runs in the first. Four hits were made off McDonald, but he passed seven men. With this and the errors of his team-mates the game was lost. Schmitz was forced to retire in favor of Cavanaugh in the fourth when four hits were made off his delivery.

RED SOX 9—WHITE SOX 1.

May 7.—The Red Sox had an easy time in defeating the White Sox; score 9 to 1. The White Sox tried to start something in the second inning by making three hits off Schmitz; however, they were unable to touch Cavanaugh who worked for the Red Sox the rest of the game. Gabel's big war club played havoc with Murray's slants, pounding in four runs.
